The Rocky Mountain Sporting Dog Club and the Northern Colorado Chapter of Pheasant's Forever is hosting a fun filled youth field day on Saturday, February 10, 2017 from 9 am until 3 pm. We have outdoor activities planned emphasizing introducing youth to outdoor sports. Youngsters participating in the activities below must have a Hunter's Safety Card.

Youngsters without hunter safety cards and their parents are welcome to watch all activities and enjoy the fun.

Planned Youth Activities:

- Archery
- Trap Shooting
- Rifle Shooting - .22 caliber
- Special Youth Hunt over Pointing Dogs

A special youth hunt will be conducted starting after lunch. The event is designed to introduce youngsters to the joys of hunting over well trained bird dogs. Youngsters will be assigned a group and a mentor to help them in the field. Plus there will be a guide and dog assigned to each group. Parents are welcome to walk behind the individual groups and watch the event. All persons in the field must wear a blaze orange vest or cap.

Youngsters must be pre-registered for the event.

The event is limited to youngsters between the age of 10 and 17.

All the above youth activities are FREE! However, there is a $ 10 registration fee which will be returned upon each child's checking in at registration desk or may be donated to the chapter. To register go to RMTSDC.com/Contact Us. complete info and put child's name(s) in message box. Click on shopping cart to pay registration fee

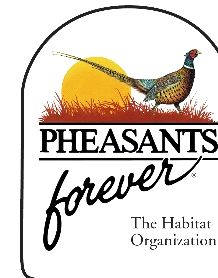

A hot lunch of chili, chips & cookies will be available starting at 11:30. Free to youth and $6 cost for adults.

The Rocky Mountain Sporting Dog Club was established to create an outdoor atmosphere and facility dedicated to the sporting breeds, both flushing and pointing; their training and what they are bred and born to do. Members and their families enjoy a facility where they are able to train their dogs and introduce their youngsters to the joys of field trialing and hunting over a well trained bird dog. Membership information and applications will be available at the event and on-line at
